Club Recap

- Installed officers at the banquet at Guldens. See list below.
- A host of Lions participated in the Rose Parade. We actually finished this year! And thanks to Lion Chet and his son for pulling the float. I think they were a little tired afterwards.

Meeting Change

In case you haven't heard the ladies of the church will only be able to provide one luncheon each month for the next Lion's year. That will be the first Thursday of each month. The board members are looking at other meeting sites and will have a report out soon. There has been considerable discussion about having the second meeting in the evening. Stay tuned.

District News.....Mark your calendars

August 16 All District meeting. Site to be determined
September 14-16 USA/Canada Forum Columbus, Ohio.

You're In Texas Son

Two men were driving through Texas when they got pulled over by a State Trooper. The cop walked up and tapped on the window with his nightstick. The driver rolled down the window and "WHACK," the cop smacked him in the head with his nightstick "What the hell was that for?" the driver asked.

You're in Texas, son," the trooper answered. "When we pull you over in Texas, you better have your license ready by the time we get to your car."

"I'm sorry, officer, " the driver said, "I'm from New York and didn't know your laws here."

The trooper runs a check on the guy's license--he's clean and gives the guy his license back. The trooper then walks around to the passenger side and taps on the window. The passenger rolls down the window and "WHACK," the trooper smacks him on the head with the nightstick.

"What'd you do that for?" the passenger demands.

"Just making your wish come true," replied the trooper.

"Making WHAT wish come true?" the passenger asked.

"Because I know you New Yorkers," the trooper says, "two miles down the road you're gonna turn to your buddy and say..... 'I wish that asshole would've tried that shit with me!'"
