From the District Newsletter

It appears likely that following a meeting in England the Lion Ross Campaign will ask the Council of Governors to endorse the candidate from Germany for the office of Second Vice President at the 2007 Chicago International Convention. That means the Lion Ross will withdraw as a candidate for the office of 2nd V.P. Lion Ross and Lynda would like to thank you for your support and still encourage you to experience the trip to the International Convention in Chicago. They hope the see you there.

A very successful lawyer parked his brand-new Lexus in front of his office, ready to show it off to his colleagues. As he got out, a truck passed too close and completely tore the door off of the drivers side. The counselor immediately grabbed his cell phone, dialed 911, and within minutes a policeman pulled up.

Before the officer had a chance to ask any questions, the lawyer started screaming hysterically. His Lexus, which he had just picked up the day before, was now completely ruined and would never be the same, no matter what the body shop did to it.

When the lawyer finally wound down from his ranting and raving, the officer shook his head in disgust and disbelief.

"I cant believe how materialistic you lawyers are," he said. "You are so focused on your possessions that you dont notice anything else."

"How can you say such a thing?" asked the lawyer. The cop replied, "Dont you know that your left arm is missing from the elbow down? It must have been torn off when the truck hit you."

"Ahhh!" screamed the lawyer. "Wheres my Rolex!"
